RE- SEARCH

The image shows two research reports from the International of Education (IEAL) and the Red of Women Educators (RED). The report on the left, titled '¿QUIÉN PAGA LOS PLATOS ROTOS?', discusses labor rights and care crises for teachers in eight Latin American countries. The report on the right, titled 'SOSTENER EL FUTURO: EDUCAR Y CUIDAR SIN RECURSOS NI APOYO', examines the impact of COVID-19 measures on educators in eight countries. Both reports feature logos for IEAL, RED, NEA, CTF/FCE, Sveriges Lärare, and Utbildningsförbundet.

COMMUNICATION STRATEGY OF THE NETWORK

1

Raise awareness about issues affecting women teachers through the communication agenda of EILA and affiliated organizations, conducting communication and outreach campaigns.

2

Promote the EILA Campaign for the ratification of ILO Convention 190 through a communication campaign. 2023: Articles in media outlets, social media posts, among others.

3

Highlight the achievements and political profiles of women leaders in the region through a digital campaign on women's accomplishments: photo-stories and biographies.

OBSERVATORY OF GENDER EQUALITY

This observatory will have three pillars:

- Gender equality in the world of work
- Advancements and setbacks in labor rights and their impact on women's lives
- Women's rights in the workplace
